D. S. K. & Co., in sincerely thanking the public for the ready and generous support accorded them, have much satisfaction in stating that they have now more thoroughly organized their business, and are extending its various departments, so as to meet fully and promptly the wishes of those who favour them with orders. It has from the beginning been their care to insure the perfect purity and trustworthiness of every preparation they make, as being the only means of securing uniformity and correctness in the dispensing of prescriptions.

They have also endeavoured to reduce, as far as consistent with quality, the prices of all the articles in which they deal, and the demand which has arisen for many of their preparations of public approval.

NOTICES.

ENGLISH CONCERTINAS.—The Improved Instruments made for India to the express order of SOUNDY & Co. are much lighter than those formerly manufactured, thereby enabling Ladies to get a firmer hold, and giving greater power of execution and brilliancy; those constructed with steel vibrators, have the advantage of never getting out of tune, and are used by the principal Professors in England.

THE TREBLE CONCERTINA, DOUBLE ACTION.

With 48 Keys, full compass, 3 Octaves and 3 Notes.

No. 1. A very excellent Instrument in Mahogany Box, strongly recommended. ... ...Rs. 70

No. 2. Best finished Rosewood Instrument, the keys bushed, (i. e. surrounded with cloth to prevent rattling), in Rosewood Box ... .Rs. 100.

No. 3. Ditto, highly finished, improved bellows, ornamented, metal inlaid, and silver-tipped metal studs, in Rosewood Box ... ... Rs. 150.

No. 4. The Patent Concert Concertina, Amboyna ends, inlaid, gilt studs and tempered steel vibrators &c. &c., in Amboyna Box,... ...Rs. 225.

This Instrument is specially suitable for presentation to a Lady, and cannot be surpassed in tone and finish.

THE BARITONE CONCERTINA

Is, in pitch, exactly one octave lower than the Treble Concertina; and the fingering being precisely similar in both instruments, any person already acquainted with the one can with very little practice perform on the other.

The Baritone is peculiarly adapted for the performance of Sacred Music, and as an accompaniment to the voice. It is also an excellent substitute for the Tenor Violin (or Viola) and the Violoncello; enabling the performer to take either of these parts in a concerted piece.

The tone of the Baritone Concertina is rich, full, and sonorous; it seldom gets out of order, and rarely requires tuning.

Compass, 3 Octaves and 3 Notes.
Best finished Rosewood Instrument, with metal studs, in Rosewood Box, Rs. 250.

GERMAN CONCERTINAS.

A very large Stock of these Instruments continually on Sale.

20 to 28 keys	Rs. 15 to 35
20 keys, "Organ" tone or "Voix Celeste," from	Rs. 25 to 50

In redemption of a promise made in April last through the medium of a Circular issued by our Calcutta Firm or the Residents of Western India, intimating our intention to establish ourselves in Bombay in conjunction with our Calcutta, London and Bordeaux Houses as WINE MERCHANTS, we beg to state that we have taken Offices and Godowns as above.

We refer with confidence to the high character our Calcutta Firm has borne, extending over half a century, as the best guarantee of our ability and disposition to give satisfaction to all who entrust their orders to us, and we look forward to a favourable reception of the present undertaking.

We have had the honour of enrolling on our Books most of the Messes in India. It will suffice, however, to enumerate the Regiments and Batteries which have entrusted us with their orders since the Mutiny in 1857.

The following exhibit the number of Regiments we have supplied, and it is gratifying to add that we hold testimonials from most of the Mess Presidents expressing [illegible] satisfaction of the manner in which their transactions, with our House, have been carried on for a series of years.—

- 11 Regiments of British Cavalry.
- 83 Regiments of British Infantry.
- 7 Brigades of Royal Horse Artillery.
- 83 Brigades of Royal Foot Artillery.
- 26 Regiments of Bengal and Madras Cavalry.
- 61 Regiments of Bengal Infantry.
- 11 Regiments of late Bengal Infantry.
- 15 Regiments of Bombay and Madras Infantry.
- 22 Miscellaneous Regiments.

GUARANTEE OF QUALITY.

We wish it to be distinctly understood that in all instances we guarantee the quality and purity of our Wines and Spirits, and that we engage to take back or exchange any that may not be approved.

We would direct special attention to our Cash quotations which we have found so successful in Calcutta, whereby our friends derive all the advantages of a cash transaction by obtaining their Wines at the very lowest remunerative prices. All orders to the Cash Department should be accompanied by a Remittance, in the absence of which they will be transferred to the Credit Department for execution at credit rates.

Our quotations for Sparkling Wines are for good delivery from our Godowns, our calculations being based to guarantee the full complement of sound bottles in each case, the risk of breakage and ullage is thereby avoided by the consumer.

Our deliveries will be in quantities of not less than 1 Doz., excepting Liquors, which can be had in any quantity. Sample bottles may be had, and to the purchasers of 6 dozens and upwards there will be no charge made for the same.

The Trade supplied on the most liberal terms.

We beg to observe that no efforts on our part shall be wanting to render our Establishment in Bombay worthy of support, and, by attention to all orders entrusted to us, we hope to merit a continuance of that confidence which has been enjoyed by our Calcutta Firm for upwards of fifty years.

CLARETS.

Our Clarets reach us direct from our Bordeaux house where we have always a reserve of two or three hundred Hogsheads of Good Vintage Wines. This gives us advantages over houses who have to depend upon the market and are necessarily obliged to draw their supplies from second, third, and even fourth hands. Every change in ownership adds considerably to the cost of the Wine.

BRANDY.

It is well known that Hennessy, Martell, Otard, Meukow, and one or two other Growers supply the whole of the Home and Foreign Markets with Brandy in bulk, and it is afterwards bottled and sent out to different parts of the world under various marks and brands. We have been appointed Sole Agents in India for Meukow's Brandy.

We have always a reserve of two hundred and fifty to three hundred Hogsheads of Brandy in bond in the London Vaults, which are allowed to mature before bottling. This enables us to keep up the quality and character of our own brands.

We take the liberty of mentioning that there is a vast quantity of adulterated Wines shipped to this country, which are offered at somewhat lower prices than those at which we can afford to sell pure Wines: still we are assured that good Wines will stand their ground when fairly tested. Those parties, however, who vend "made up" Wines act very injuriously to the fair trader, and bring discredit on the merchant generally.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 19, 1868.

WE extract the following from the letter of the Broach Correspondent of the Times of India in yesterday's issue.—

"Apropos to your able article on the Guicowar's Government: on the march here the Artillery found it necessary to halt at the gaum where the Guicowar's brother has been so long confined a close prisoner, and they declare that of all the [illegible] places they came across [illegible] filthy abominable places they came [illegible] on their march from Deesa, that place beat them all, the smell for miles round being almost enough to kill a horse. It is sincerely to be desired for the honor of the British name, and in the interests of justice and humanity, that H. E. the Governor will on his arrival at Baroda, whither he goes on leaving Broach, institute a searching enquiry into this scandalous affair. The Resident, who is supposed on all matters of state importance to guide the deliberations of the durbar, reminds me very forcibly of another amateur statesman whose head quarters are not 200 miles from a place called Wudwan in Kattywar, and whose position there is, or was, acting First Assistant Political Agent—a position I need hardly say demanding the exercise of three special qualifications, in all of which he is, or was, notoriously deficient, viz., self-reliance, clear judgment, and inflexible will."

It cannot be doubted that this imprisonment is a most "scandalous affair," so scandalous that we trust the Governor, instead of instituting any enquiry, will without further delay, order the release of the prisoner who has now undergone solitary confinement for more than five years in what is above described as "a filthy abominable place." We understand that the Governor has interested himself in the matter of this fraternal imprisonment, and demanded information on the subject from the Resident at Baroda. That distinguished officer, guided and advised by the Guicowar and his Dewan, has, we are informed, represented that the "filthy and abominable place" contains "a fine airy mansion throughout which the prisoner is permitted to roam, that it is replete with every convenience, that the prisoner is happy and contented, supplied with every comfort, and wants for nothing but liberty." Now, we have the assurance of several European gentlemen, who have visited the spot during the last two years, and some of them but very lately, and who, from their own observation, state that the fine airy mansion is but a sorry loft in a dirty stinking situation. The prisoner's guards (above a hundred in number) as well as numerous inhabitants of the town adjoining, all represent that the prisoner during the period of his captivity of five years has never been permitted to go about the place, that he is never allowed to see any one but his guards, who are prohibited from speaking to him, that he is treated with the utmost severity, and subjected to all sorts of deprivations.

The Resident is individually responsible for all this. It is his duty to advise and restrain the Guicowar, and, if his brother is to be detained a prisoner, it is specially the Resident's care to see that he is mildly and properly treated.

The correctness of the testimony we have before us of th[illegible], it is impossible to doubt, although it does appear to be quite inconsistent with the representations said to have been made by the Resident, by the light of whose candle the Government seem hitherto to have been guided, and to have obtained but very imperfect vision. With such testimony before them the Government cannot hesitate a moment to institute a special enquiry into the truth. In a conflict of statement, or testimony, in a case of this description, we apprehend it is the positive duty of Government to obtain accurate unimpeachable information.

We think, however, considering the severity and duration of the punishment already endured by this miserable captive, it would be but an [illegible] of generosity, if not of simple ju[illegible] free at once.

In redemption of a promise made in April last through the medium of a Circular issued by our Calcutta Firm or the Residents of Western India, intimating our intention to establish ourselves in Bombay in conjunction with out Calcutta, London and Bordeaux Houses as WINE MERCHANTS, we beg to state that we have taken Offices and Godowns as above.

We refer with confidence to the high character our Calcutta Firm has borne, extending over half a century, as the best guarantee of our ability and disposition to give satisfaction to all who entrust their orders to us, and we look forward to a favourable reception of the present undertaking.

We have had the honour of enrolling on our Books most of the Messes in India. It will suffice, however, to enumerate the Regiments and Batteries which have entrusted us with their orders since the Mutiny in 1857.

The following exhibit the number of Regiments we have supplied, and it is gratifying to add that we hold testimonials from most of the Mess Presidents expressing their satisfaction of the manner in which their transactions, with our House, have been carried on for a series of years:—

11 Regiments of British Cavalry.
82 Regiments of British Infantry.
7 Brigades of Royal Horse Artillery.
53 Brigades of Royal Foot Artillery.
26 Regiments of Bengal and Madras Cavalry.
61 Regiments of Bengal Infantry.
11 Regiments of late Bengal Infantry.
15 Regiments of Bombay and Madras Infantry.
22 Miscellaneous Regiments.

GUARANTEE OF QUALITY.

We wish it to be distinctly understood that in all instances we guarantee the quality and purity of our Wines and Spirits, and that we engage to take back or exchange any that may not be approved.

We would direct special attention to our Cash quotations which we have found so successful in Calcutta, whereby our friends derive all the advantages of a cash transaction by obtaining their Wines at the very lowest remunerative prices. All orders to the Cash Department should be accompanied by a Remittance, in the absence of which they will be transferred to the Credit Department for execution at credit rates.

Our quotations for Sparkling Wines are for good delivery from our Godowns, our calculations being based to guarantee the full complement of sound bottles in each case, the risk of breakage and ullage is thereby avoided by the consumer.

Our deliveries will be in quantities of not less than 1 Doz., excepting Liquors, which can be had in any quantity. Sample bottles may be had, and to the purchasers of 6 dozens and upwards there will be no charge made for the same.

The Trade supplied on the most liberal terms.

We beg to observe that no efforts on our part shall be wanting to render our Establishment in Bombay worthy of support, and, by attention to all orders entrusted to us, we hope to merit a continuance of that confidence which has been enjoyed by our Calcutta Firm for upwards of fifty years.

The last named will be found a nice, elegant, and good flavoured Wine, and very suitable for this climate. We introduced it in our Calcutta house some years ago, and the demand for it has been steadily on the increase. This Wine is greatly in request during the hot weather.

* The brands marked with an asterisk (*) are daily expected.

CLARETS.

Our Clarets reach us direct from our Bordeaux house, where we have always a reserve of two or three hundred Hogsheads of Good Vintage Wines. This gives us advantages over houses who have to depend upon the market and are necessarily obliged to draw their supplies from second, third, and even fourth hands. Every change in ownership adds considerably to the cost of the Wine.

BRANDY.

It is well known that Hennessy, Martell, Otard, Meukow, and one or two other Growers supply the whole of the Home and Foreign Markets with Brandy in bulk, and it is afterwards bottled and sent out to different parts of the world under various marks and brands. We have been appointed Sole Agents in India for Meukow's Brandy.

We have always a reserve of two hundred and fifty to three hundred Hogsheads of Brandy in bond in the London Vaults, which are allowed to mature before bottling. This enables us to keep up the quality and character of our own brands.

We take the liberty of mentioning that there is a vast quantity of adulterated Wines shipped to this country, which are offered at somewhat lower prices than those at which we can afford to sell pure Wines: still we are assured that good Wines will stand their ground when fairly tested. Those parties, however, who vend "made up" Wines act very injuriously to the fair trader, and bring discredit on the merchant generally.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 19, 1868.

WE extract the following from the letter of the Broach Correspondent of the Times of India in yesterday's issue.—

"Apropos to your able article on the Guicowar's Government: on the march here the Artillery found it necessary to halt at the gaum where the Guicowar's brother has been so long confined a close prisoner, and they declare that of all the [illegible] places they came across [illegible] abominable [illegible] their march from Deesa, that place beat them all, the smell for miles round being almost enough to kill a horse. It is sincerely to be desired for the honor of the British name, and in the interests of justice and humanity, that H. E. the Governor will on his arrival at Baroda, whither he goes on leaving Broach, institute a searching enquiry into this scandalous affair. The Resident, who is supposed on all matters of state importance to guide the deliberations of the durbar, reminds me very forcibly of another amateur statesman whose head quarters are not 200 miles from a place called Wudwan in Kattywar, and whose position there is, or was, acting First Assistant Political Agent—a position I need hardly say demanding the exercise of three special qualifications, in all of which he is, or was, notoriously deficient, viz., self-reliance, clear judgment, and inflexible will."

It cannot be doubted that this imprisonment is a most "scandalous affair," so scandalous that we trust the Governor, instead of instituting any enquiry, will without further delay, order the release of the prisoner who has now undergone solitary confinement for more than five years in what is above described as "a filthy abominable place." We understand that the Governor has interested himself in the matter of this fraternal imprisonment, and demanded information on the subject from the Resident at Baroda. That distinguished officer, guided and advised by the Guicowar and his Dewan, has, we are informed, represented that the "filthy and abominable place" contains "a fine airy mansion throughout which the prisoner is permitted to roam, that it is replete with every convenience, that the prisoner is happy and contented, supplied with every comfort, and wants for nothing but liberty." Now, we have the assurance of several European gentlemen, who have visited the spot during the last two years, and some of them but very lately, and who, from their own observation, state that the fine airy mansion is but a sorry loft in a dirty stinking situation. The prisoner's guards (above a hundred in number) as well as numerous inhabitants of the town adjoining, all represent that the prisoner during the period of his captivity of five years has never been permitted to go about the place, that he is never allowed to see any one but his guards, who are prohibited from speaking to him, that he is treated with the utmost severity, and subjected to all sorts of deprivations.

The Resident is individually responsible for all this. It is his duty to advise and restrain the Guicowar, and, if his brother is to be detained a prisoner, it is specially the Resident's care to see that he is mildly and properly treated.

The correctness of the testimony we have before us of [illegible], it is impossible to doubt, although it does appear to be quite inconsistent with the representations said to have been made by the Resident, by the light of whose candle the Government seem hitherto to have been guided, and to have obtained but very imperfect vision. With such testimony before them the Government cannot hesitate a moment to institute a special enquiry into the truth. In a conflict of statement, or testimony, in a case of this description, we apprehend it is the positive duty of Government to obtain accurate unimpeachable information.

We think, however, considering the severity and duration of the punishment already endured by this miserable captive, it would be but an act of generosity, if not of simple ju[illegible] free at once.
